Congress Convenes After the Holiday Recess.

THE PROGRAM FOR THE WEEK.

Not Much Legislation Expected in the House, But the Senate May Dispose of Considerable Executive Business. Committee Work—Other Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—It will take congress almost the whole of the coming week to get down to business again. The senate will take up the current of affairs more quietly and more naturally than the house. There may be a resumption of the Brazilian discussion. A quantity of executive business will doubtless be disposed of and a day will be fixed, probably in the near future, for a discussion of the race question between Senators Butler and Ingalls. An effort will be made at an early day to put through both houses the bill establishing a form of government in Oklahoma.

On the house side of the capitol, the ways and means committee will continue its hearings on the tariff, and the bulk of interest will attach to them. Very little will be done during the week, except to organize the committees appointed just prior to the recess adjournment, and possibly to begin the discussion of the report of the committee on rules. Some fear is expressed on the Democratic side that an effort will be made to dispose of the contested election cases on a partisan basis before the rules are adopted. The committee on rules is not ready to make a report and may not be ready this week. The debate on the rules will probably be protracted.

Treasury Department Statement.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The treasury department monthly statement of changes in the circulation shows a net increase during the past month of December aggregating $13,016,294. There was an increase of $8,145,097 in United States notes; $6,154,037 in silver certificates; $936,433 in gold coin; $565,964 in standard silver dollars and $375,617 in subsidiary silver. National bank note circulation decreased $2,664,174 and gold certificates $497,330. The total circulation of the country on Jan. 1 is placed at $1,430,549,929.

No Trouble With Colombia.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—It is not likely that any war vessels will be sent to Colombia at present as the result of the recent alleged seizure of American vessels at ports in that country, as the information in possession of the secretary of state would seem to indicate that the Colombia authorities were justified in refusing clearance to vessels at points not regular ports of entry.

FRENCH CANADIANS PROTEST

Against the Anti-Secret Society Declarations of the Recent Catholic Congress.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Jan. 6.—Yesterday afternoon the Digue des Patriotes, a flourishing French-Canadian organization, had a meeting, the principal object of which was to express their opposition to the attitude of the Catholic congress recently held in Baltimore, which said that National societies, as such, have no place in the Catholic church.

Canadians feel that this declaration was especially directed at them and their societies, which foster a different language and different race peculiarities. They consider the declaration a forerunner of some decided stand the church authorities may take in the future against French-Canadian congregations, who always desire clergymen of their own nationality. The meeting was addressed by Hon. H. A. Dubuque, representative in the state legislature, and others, all of whom expressed strong opposition to the declaration of the congress. The addresses were enthusiastically received.

CHEAP CHINESE DOCTORS.

Chicago Doctors Down the Poor Heathen Practitioner.

CHICAGO, Jan. 6.—The medical profession fears it is about to come into competition with Chinese cheap labor. Che Fang Yuhe, a Chinaman, died without the services of a regularly licensed physician, having been attended by Dr. Lee, a Celestial physician, and until the coroner has sat upon Che Fang Yuhe it cannot be determined officially that he is dead. He died of consumption, and all the doctors in America couldn't have saved him; but the regular doctors are after Dr. Lee, "all the same."

Health Commissioner Wickersham says: "I suppose that if Dr. Lee is a regular Chinese practitioner, and can show his diploma it will be all right. You mustn't think the Chinese are fools. There is no doubt that their drugs are efficacious and that there is virtue in their pharmacopoeia."

Dr. Tomlinson, of the health department, who has charge of the matter, says a Chinese diploma will not do at all.

"But suppose he is a competent man, according to Chinese medical ethics?" was asked.

"Don't make any difference. He can't practice medicine in Illinois unless he passes an examination and gets a license."

Arrival of an Overdue Steamer.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 6.—The Merchants' Exchange reports the disabled steamer State of California as being two miles off shore and heading for the harbor, in tow of a tug boat. Considerable apprehension has been felt here as to the fate of the vessel, she having been several days overdue from Astoria and Portland. The vessel's shaft had been broken. She carried one hundred persons.

STRIKE ENDED.

A Rumor That the Strike at Evansville is Over.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Jan. 6.—The strike situation here remains in statu quo. The conference between the strikers and President Mackey resulted in nothing but disagreement.

Yesterday everything was quiet and orderly, but about the Union depot great crowds congregated, more with a sight-seeing desire than any other motive.

During the day President Mackey was visited by committees from the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen, and it is currently reported, received authoritative expressions from them that they were not in sympathy with the strike, and would not aid the strikers in any manner what-ever.

The strike committee also had another conference with President Mackey, which lasted until 10 o'clock. The men will return to work. The details of the compromise are not known, further than that Master of Transportation Hurd will be retained in his position.

P. D. & E. Strikers Resume Work.

MATTOON, Ill., Jan. 6.—The striking conductors, brakemen and switching crews, of the Peoria, Decatur and Evansville railway, who went out in sympathy with their fellow employees on the Indiana lines, concluded to resume work. The first train moved in thirty-five hours was started at 2 o'clock for Peoria. The men on this line had no grievance, and considered it ill-advised to lose their places.

Reduction of Hours Granted.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 6.—The clothing manufacturers acceded to the demand of the Garment Cutters' and Trimmers' local assembly for a reduction of working time from ten to nine hours a day, the per diem wages to remain unchanged. The new system went into effect to-day.

A BRUTAL HUSBAND.

He Abused His Wife Until She Died Then Refused to Bury Her.

PETERBORO, Ont., Jan. 6.—A terrible tale of brutality was brought to light at the inquest, Saturday, on the body of Mrs. Eliza Holbrook, wife of James E. Holbrook, justice of the peace and a wealthy farmer of this county. Mrs. Holbrook, who was 70 years old and feeble, left her home, about two miles from her house, on Thursday her body, scantily clad, was found in a swamp about three miles from home.

The evidence given at the inquest showed that Holbrook kept his wife badly clothed and ill-fed, locking up the provisions from her, and that he beat her shamefully. The verdict censured Holbrook, and when the body of his wife was turned over to him he refused to bury it, but finally consented to do so when he learned that otherwise it would be turned over to the medical college. The feeling against Holbrook is intense, and the people are clamoring for his prosecution.

PROBABLE SUICIDE.

Body of an Unknown Man Found in Miami River at Middletown.

MIDDLETOWN, O., Jan. 6.—An unknown man was found in the Miami river, just south of the west bridge, near the west bank, Sunday afternoon. He is five feet eleven inches tall, weighs about 190 pounds, broad shoulders, well muscled, high forehead, straight large nose, full set of teeth, none out, medium mustache (auburn in color), hair sandy and heavy, has cut of recent date on back of head.

He had on a woolen undershirt and a plaid overshirt. His coat, pants, vest, red stockings and congress shoes were found north of the bridge about 900 feet above where he was found. Acting Coroner W. B. Hedding, after viewing the body, turned it over to Undertaker E. Rathman, who took it to his place of business, where the body is now lying for identification. It looks like a suicide. The acting coroner will hold an inquest to-day.

Fight Between Whites and Blacks.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Jan. 5.—Late last night two parties of United States soldiers, one colored, of the Ninth cavalry, and the other white soldiers, were returning to the fort from Leavenworth when Charles Harrison, one of the colored men, insulted one of the white soldiers. A free fight ensued. The whites used the cudgels, and the negroes their razors. Two negroes, names not known, were severely injured, and were sent to the hospital. None of the white soldiers were injured. The car in which the fight occurred was totally wrecked.

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 6.—Isidore Garnie committed suicide yesterday at Decatur. Two years ago he shot a man at Jacksonville and was acquitted. He used the same pistol yesterday. No cause is known for the suicide save despondency.

Eight Hour Question.

It is Being Agitated Throughout England.

SMART SCHEME OF THE TORIES.

A Wild Bid for Popularity and Power.

The Present Condition of Labor in London—Severe Storms Prevailing Throughout Great Britain—Other Cable Dispatches.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—Lord Randolph Churchill's second letter on the eight hour question is attracting quite a good deal of attention, and is regarded in a variety of ways by the different sections of politicians. The ministers generally regard it as a rather wild bid for popularity and power, but in Tory circles of less responsibility the letter is otherwise interpreted.

In London the conditions of labor are essentially different from those which obtain in any of the great towns of the north. It is not the rule here for men to work in conjunction with great investments in machinery. This lessens the amount of opposition from powerful capitalists to be encountered here, as compared with most other English cities, in regard to the eight-hour plan.

Lord Randolph Churchill is evidently counting on this fact in his attempt to commit the Conservative candidate in London to a position on the labor question which will give them the support of many followers of the Socialist, John Burns, and take the wind out of the sails of the advanced Liberals. On the other hand, however, there is quite a strong party in the working class who are afraid of the eight hour system, because they fear it will involve reduction in pay or abolition of overtime.

Pitifully enough, men can be found who are working an average of sixty-eight a week, yet who protest against a proposal to lessen their period of work. They can hardly be blamed, however, for their fears, since disinterested and learned political economists are by no means agreed as to what effect a compulsory eight-hour law would have upon wages. At all events Mr. John Burns has within a few days intimated to the Liberal leaders, that the Tories are ready to concede all that the Socialists demand on this point.

A vote has been taken by the employees of Scotch railroad lines on the ten hour question. The result shows that a majority of the men are opposed to a strike, and in favor of a conference with the managers with a view to relief from excessively long periods of work.

Serious Damage From Storms.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—A severe storm prevailed throughout Great Britain yesterday, causing considerable damage at several points. The gale extended some distance off coast, and a number of wrecks are reported. The Protestant church at Birr, Ireland, was shattered by a stroke of lightning.

A LOST HEIRESS.

Alice Jackman, of St. Louis, Again Abducted.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 6.—Alice Jackman, the 16-year-old heiress, who figured in a sensational abduction case five weeks ago, was abducted again last night. Dr. J. G. Taylor is Miss Jackman's guardian. She ran away Nov. 25 and placed herself under the care of Mrs. W. H. Brothers, and subsequently elected Mrs. Brothers her guardian.

Two days later the girl was abducted from the residence of Mrs. Brothers, and it was clearly shown in the legal proceedings that ensued, that she was taken by Charles C. Spink, from whose possession she was forcibly taken last night. Spink had some of his friends pick the young lady up in the street carried her to a carriage and drove away. That night she was taken to Chicago and placed in the care of a friend of the Spink family. A legal battle of four weeks' duration followed, and it ended, with the appearance of the girl in court, when she chose Dr. Taylor as her guardian. She was accordingly returned to her old guardian, with whom she remained until abducted last night. At 6 o'clock, as she was standing in front of C. Spink's residence, two men seized her and dragged her to a carriage and carried her off. The entire force of detectives are now searching for her.

PLOWING IN SNOW.

Work of Railroads in California in Re-heving Blocked Trains.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 6.—One of the greatest snow blockades ever known in the Sierra Nevada mountains has been raised by the railroad company's forces and rotary snow plow. The plow left Blue canyon yesterday evening, where it had been stalled for twenty-four hours, and proceeded toward Colfax, California.

From Emigrant Gap, the westbound overland trains were able to follow on behind the plow to Colfax, and from the latter point the plow will return and clear the track to Cascade, which will free the snow-bound train lying at Summit. Nothing will then stand in the way of the four eastbound trains now held at Colfax. The first of the released westbound trains is expected to arrive at Sacramento some time to-night. The others will follow soon as possible.

More Snow Than for Twenty-Five Years.

ODEN, Utah, Jan. 6.—It has been snowing here for three days. There is more snow on the Wasatch and Sierra ranges than for ten years. In the mountains the snow is from ten to fifteen feet deep. There is no wind or drifting, and the mercury is only a few degrees below freezing. In this valley there has been more snow than for twenty-five years. The storm extends all along the line of the Central Pacific to California.

Victims of the Snow Slide Buried.

SIERRA CITY, Cal., Jan. 6.—Yesterday was a sad day for Sierra City. Six of the seven unfortunates who were killed by snow slide last Friday were buried yesterday. All danger from another slide for the present, at least, is over.

Snow Storm in Nova Scotia.

HEAVY RAINS

Reported from Missouri—Rivers Over Their Banks—Much Damage Done.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 6.—The following was received Saturday afternoon from Piedmont, Mo.:

The heaviest rains have prevailed in this section. Black river is higher than it has been for fifteen years, and covers all the bottom lands on either side to a depth of from four to ten feet. Every farm is entirely inundated, fences washed away and much stock destroyed. The mills of the Wayne Lumber company, located on the river four miles south of this place, were entirely under water. They lost much of their lumber.

A trestle 150 feet long was washed out of the railroad track five miles south and no trains have passed either way for forty-eight hours. There are now in Piedmont thirty carloads of passengers waiting to be carried south; most of them have been here thirty-six hours.

Every hotel, private boarding house and restaurant has been taxed to its utmost to feed the hundreds of people that have been dumped into this place the last two days.

It was rumored on the streets Friday that the St. Francis was out of its banks and the water three feet deep in the streets of Greenville.

STOLE FOR SANTA CLAUS.

Christmas Presents Which Were Purchased from Various Stores.

BOOTH BAY HARBOR, Me., Jan. 6.—The sudden flight of a well known woman of this town and her husband, leaving behind them their six children, has brought a curious story to light. Although the woman was of very limited means she sent to the Sunday school of the church which she attended the two large boxes of presents to be placed upon the Christmas tree. There were sixty-eight packages in all, and some of them were very costly articles.

The church people were simply astounded when, Christmas eve, a constable called upon them and informed them that all the presents had been stolen by the woman, who, for some days previous, had visited the stores in town and had taken away any article which she could pilfer without detection. When the distribution of prizes took place she was present at the church and seemed somewhat astonished when none of her presents was awarded or named. She inquired the reason and was told enough to let her know she had been found out. That evening it leaked out that a warrant for her arrest was to be issued, and at midnight she fled with her husband.

A Soap Factory.

"There is nothing manufactured in which there is more clear profit than there is in soap."

The gentleman who signs himself "A Soap-Maker" elsewhere in this issue made the above assertion during a conversation a few days ago. He was engaged in the business for years and certainly ought to be thoroughly posted on the subject. Not only that—he is acquainted in the country surrounding Maysville, his business of late years having required a great deal of traveling. He is posted on this subject and is satisfied a soap factory here will pay. He knows what it takes to make the soap, knows where much of the material required can be had at trifling cost, and knows that there is a big home market for the output of the factory.

The slaughter house in the West End can be properly fitted up for a factory of the character mentioned at very little cost—"A Soap-Maker" places the expense at $1,000 or less. If the owners of the house will interest themselves, the enterprise can soon be started. It will not require much to place it on a solid footing.

That there is money, and lots of it too, in soap is evidenced by the fact that the well-known firm of Proctor & Gamble, of Cincinnati, cleared $600,000 on their last year's sales. And this firm started their factory in a small shed.

We trust the subject will receive the consideration it deserves.

THE Democratic Legislative caucus at Columbus, O., last Saturday unanimously nominated W. B. Albright, of Brown County, for Enrolling Clerk of the House.

ONE of the witnesses before the Ways and Means Committee at Washington Friday, to prove that the tariff is not a tax, though it is defined to be a tax in the Constitution of the United States, was rather hard on holy John Wana-maker. The witness stated that great frauds were practiced upon the Treasury and upon protected wool-growers by classifying "combing-wools" as "carpet-wools," and that the Postmaster General's Philadelphia clothing store was full of pantaloons made of wool imported as carpet-wool, which pays a tax of but 26.16 per cent., whereas combing-wools pay a tax of 49.03 per cent. There is no denying that pious John is a free trader when it comes to the revenues of his store.—Louisville Times.

A SOAP FACTORY.

A Fine Opening Here for Such an Enterprise—A Timely Suggestion.

Editor Bulletin:—The people of Maysville are standing in their own light in regard to manufactures.

We ought to have a soap factory in Maysville. Right here we have one of the finest openings for an enterprise of that kind that can be found. I speak of the slaughter house in the West End. This building is half way fitted already for the business, and it would take but a small capital to fit it up in proper order.

When we take into consideration the vast amount of hogs slaughtered in Kentucky, even in our own county, by the individual families, we will find that the refuse, grease and cracklins, from these hogs is immense. It runs from one to three barrels to each family, and there are tons and tons of it going to waste every year, simply because there is no market for it here, and because the farmer has no wood as in former years when he made his lye from the wood ashes and then made his soap. But now he is obliged to use coal and to buy his soap.

Now look: New York has one hundred and fifty soap factories, Pennsylvania has over one hundred, Massachusetts has eighty or more, Ohio has sixty-five. But Kentucky has none. These manufactories represent a capital invested of more than twenty millions, and the output of soap each year is valued at forty millions or more.

Surely we are behind the times, for as I have said we have abundance of material, plenty of capital unemployed and property going to rack and ruin when it might be made a profitable investment.

MORE OF THAT MESSAGE.

What the Governor Says of Immigration, the Road Law and Foreign Building Associations.

IMMIGRATION AND CAPITAL.

There is a general desire for more capital, and Kentucky is not an exception to the rule; but capital only seeks fields where it expects to find remuneration, and immigration follows closely on the heels of capital to supply the labor necessary for development. The work of the Geological Survey has demonstrated the existence of immense mineral wealth in the State which can be easily developed, with flattering promise of compensation. To bring capital and immigration to the State it is only necessary to convince the world that we have fields sufficiently promising to attract them. It is believed that this can be easily done by a comparatively small appropriation, placed at the disposal of some appropriate official with directions to establish at some proper point a Bureau of Information, where evidences of the mineral and agricultural wealth of the State shall be kept permanently on exhibition, and proper information furnished to all who may seek a further knowledge of the inducements which can be offered for immigration to the State. The subject is commended to your consideration.

ROAD LAW.

Public and private convenience, the demands of civilization, and the needs of commercial intercourse alike demand a revision of the road laws of the State.

Equity would seem to demand that all who are benefited by public roads should contribute to their support in proportion to the benefits derived from their use. This would imply that while the pedestrian should contribute of his labor to improve the road over which he can travel with less fatigue, the landed proprietor, the merchant, and the manufacturer, who are more largely benefitted, should contribute not only of their labor, but of their wealth, for the construction of highways which largely enhance the values in which they are interested.

Each county should have a Superintendent of Roads, in addition to the ordinary overseers; the road tax collected should be disbursed under the orders of the proper county tribunals, and prisoners serving sentences of imprisonment in the county jails should be required to work on the public highways.

It is hoped that a well-digested law on this subject will be enacted by the present General Assembly.

FOREIGN BUILDING AND KINDRED ASSOCIATIONS.

It will be remembered that prior to the enactment of the present insurance legislation, the people of the State were constantly defrauded through the instrumentality of foreign insurance companies having fictitious capital and being under irresponsible management.

It is believed that the laboring classes of the people are being extensively defrauded by building and other associations, organized in distant States, whose resources are unknown and whose management is irresponsible. Every such organization should be placed under the supervision of the Insurance Bureau, should be required to file a sworn statement of its condition and assets and to pay a tax to the State as a preliminary to obtaining permission to operate in this State, and should be subject to the same local rates of taxation as like associations organized under the laws of this State. As at present operated they draw largely upon the resources of the laboring classes in this State without making any corresponding return.

LOTTERIES.

Your attention is invited to the legislation on the subject of the Frankfort Lottery. It is believed that the scheme thereby authorized has exhausted its privileges, and has no longer any right to exist. It seems to be conducted now in the interests of a few persons, who derive from it large individual profits at the cost, chiefly, of the poorer classes of the community, who are debauched and, in many cases, led into crime by being tempted to gamble in its policies.

When the General Assembly, by its enactments, denounces crime under severe penalties, it certainly seems opposed to public policy to legalize a corporation which is a constant incentive to crime. It is earnestly recommended that the privileges improperly exercised by this lottery scheme be withdrawn by appropriate legislation.

COLLIDED IN A FOG.

Three Men Fatally and Six Seriously Hurt.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Jan. 6.—Three men were fatally injured and half a dozen seriously by the rear end collision on the Rock Island road, near Malcolm, about 11 o'clock Saturday night. Both trains were freight trains.

The collision was due to the fact that the engineer of the rear train failed to see the lights on the train in front of him because of the fog. Elmer and William Meyers, of Glover, La., were so badly hurt that they died yesterday, and John Rhodes, a stockman, from Dallas county, is not expected to live. Six other men were severely bruised, but their injuries will not prove fatal.

Water Supply Threatened.

DAVENPORT, Iowa, Jan. 6.—The gauge yesterday marked eight inches lower than any former record of the Mississippi river at this point. It is probably caused by a gorge above, and is likely to be only temporary, but much apprehension is caused in Rock Island and this city. The water supply of both cities will be cut off by a further fall of a few inches. Workmen were yesterday engaged in lowering the pipes which run out into the river.

Deaths From La Grippe

Nine Reported to the Coroner
In New York City.

FATAL CASES AT OTHER PLACES.

The Malady Spreading Everywhere to an Alarming Extent—The State of Affairs Across the Ocean are no Brighter and the Epidemic Still Raging.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Nine deaths from la grippe were reported to the coroner's office yesterday. Most of the deaths occurred in cheap lodging houses or in the tenement house district.

The extent to which the prevailing malady has seized upon the people of New York can be estimated in some degree by the number of cases which are registered at the different hospitals. At the Bellevue hospital there have been sixty-five new cases registered since Dec. 28. Some of the cases are severe as that of Dr. Paul Hoffman, who became insane through the disease.

The death rate for the city for the past twenty-four hours was 207. Fifteen more policemen were added to the la grippe list, making the total disabled 377.

In Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 6.—Over half the students at the Johns Hopkins university are nearly sneezing their heads off. Several days ago la grippe visited them, and it has been steadily increasing until now.

The first death that has occurred in Baltimore, traceable to grippé, occurred yesterday afternoon. John Benedict Kissnar, a carpet weaver, living at No. 1619 Bank street, contracted a heavy cold in the head on Dec. 27. It extended to the chest and pneumonia was developed, and he died yesterday afternoon.

Johnstown Afflicted.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Jan. 6.—Dr. George W. Wagoner, local member of the state board of health, says there are from 400 to 500 cases of grippé in Johnstown. A number of the cases are serious.

Increasing at Parkersburg, W. Va.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Jan. 6.—La grippe is increasing here. Editor R. E. Horner, of The Sentinel, is reported fatally ill, and Chief of Police Dilo is confined to his room.

Many Deaths in Berlin.

BERLIN, Jan. 6.—Many deaths are occurring from influenza. Among the prominent persons afflicted with the disease in a serious form are the Princess Bismarck and Councillor Von Rottenburg.

Crew of Our War Ships Ill.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—The United States steamship Enterprise is at Plymouth with a majority of her crew suffering from influenza. Six of the men have been removed to the naval hospital.

Empress Augusta Ill.

LISBON, Jan. 6.—The condition of the Dowager Empress Augusta, who is suffering from influenza, has grown more serious.

CHANGED HIS QUARTERS.

An Indiana Convict Arrested on His Release and Taken to the Ohio Pen.

LAFORTE, Ind., Jan. 6.—John Sullivan was released from the Northern prison Saturday evening. He was surprised when he emerged from behind the walls to find Deputy Warden W. B. Cherington, of the Columbus, O., penitentiary, waiting for him. Mr. Cherington was armed with the necessary papers to take Sullivan back to Columbus, from where he escaped in 1882.

At the Ohio penitentiary Sullivan was known as William Harrison. He was taken from the prison as a witness at the trial of another criminal, and effected his escape. He came to Indiana, and in April, 1888, he was sentenced at Indianapolis to serve a term of two years for grand larceny. Deputy Warden Cherington left at once for the Columbus prison, where Sullivan, or Harrison, will serve out his unexpired term.

IN A STARVING CONDITION.

Hundreds of People Reported Destitute in the Straits of Belle Isle.

HALIFAX, N. S., Jan. 6.—The steamer Harlow arrived here Friday night from the west coast of Newfoundland. She reports that while she was at Bonne Bay a messenger arrived from Flower's Cove, straits of Belle Isle, with information for the government that about 130 families were in a starving condition, and that only immediate relief would keep them from perishing. A steamer was sent, but was prevented by the ice from reaching the destitute harbor. It may yet be possible to reach the place by way of the west coast.

THE "HERMITAGE."

Andrew Jackson's Old Home to Be Rescued From Decay.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 6.—The state of Tennessee has bought the home of Andrew Jackson and deeded it in trust to the Ladies' Hermitage association, which proposes to rescue it from decay, restore it to its original condition, fill it with all obtainable Jackson relics, and provide a fund for its future preservation as one of the mecca of American patriotism. The fund of $150,000 needed for this purpose is to be raised by admitting 100,000 members subscribing $1.50 each to the fund.

Killed While Cutting Timber.

WABASH, Ind., Jan. 6.—About noon Saturday William Weaver, a young farmer, aged about 30 years, was instantly killed while cutting timber in Paw Paw township, this county. A large tree which Weaver was felling crashed against other trees in its descent, and the limbs were drawn back and then suddenly released. The rebound of a large branch caught Weaver in the forehead, splitting a hole in his skull from which the brains oozed. He scarcely breathed after the blow. He leaves a widow and three children.

THE ILLINOIS ALMS HOUSE HORROR.

Governor Pifer Receives Reports Confirming the Reports.

CHICAGO, Jan. 6.—The reports of the horrible treatment of insane women in the Du Page county alms house are declared in an official statement to Governor Pifer last night to be well founded. The statement is signed by Dr. F. H. Wines and Rev. C. G. Truesdell, both members of the state board of charities.

The women were covered with filth, naked, and ate off the reeking floor. When bathed at all, it was by male attendants, and at night the women's cells were left unlocked, exposing them to the danger of criminal assault from men about the place. The two women thus treated were incorrigible, and to this fact, and the ignorance and carelessness of the keeper, the report attributes the disgrace.

Both women have been removed to the state asylum, and the report recommends legislation to give the state board of charities jurisdiction over the county authorities in such cases. One of the women was insane when a dozen years ago she arrived from Germany. A law is recommended to the legislature giving the state board power to return such patients to the place from which they came.

Don Pedro Insane.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—The Journal prints a cablegram from Oporto to the effect that Don Pedro has become insane. The ex-emperor, it is stated, was painfully shocked at the empress's death, and soon showed signs of losing his mind. He sat half smiling on his couch on the day of his wife's funeral, muttering to himself and pointing foolishly on his fingers.

Blew Out the Gas.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—A farmer named Henry Payne, from Gainesville, Va., was found dead in bed in his room at the American house, here, yesterday afternoon. He had evidently blown out the gas before retiring, and going to sleep before noticing the smell of the gas, passed from sleep to death.

Review of the Money, Stock and Cattle Markets for Jan. 4.

Wall Street.

Money closed at 3 per cent., the lowest rate of the day. The highest rate was 4. Currency sixes, 116 bid; four coupons, 126 bid; four-and-a-halves do, 104½ bid.

The stock market this morning was much more active than during the same hours yesterday, nearly double the amount of trading having been done. The opening prices were irregularly changed, but in most cases values were fractionally higher. During the first hour there was an active demand for the leading stocks and prices gradually advanced. At 11 o'clock the improvement ranged from ¼ to ½ per cent. in the general list over last night's figures. The market continued firm in the closing hour to noon, notwithstanding the fact that the bank statement was unfavorable, showing a loss in the reserve of $265,675. The best prices were current at the close.
